

Lynn's Dreams

*I wish I could learn,
Like everyone else,
I wish I could swim, jump and run,
I wish different cards could have been dealt,
I wish it could be like old fun.*

*I wish I could grow and learn about life,
I wish I could feel well again,
I wish that there was an end to the strife,
And a new beginning instead.*

*But destiny's come and its drawing me near,
And I know my two ANGELS are there,
With them I will have no reason for fear,
In their warm embrace and their care.*
